Section 1. Members' Qualifications and Obligations. Any person, firm, association, corporation, body politic or subdivision thereof or any other entity recognized by law will become a member of Craighead Electric Cooperative Corporation (hereinafter called the "Cooperative") upon receipt of electric service from the Cooperative, provided that he, she or it has first:

Section 2. Membership Fee. The membership fee shall be an amount set by the Board of Directors from time to time, payment of which shall make the member eligible for one (1) service connection. Additional service connections shall be made under terms of the Cooperative's rules and regulations.

Section 3. Purchase of Electric Energy. Each member shall, as soon as electric energy shall be available to the location set forth in the application, purchase from the Cooperative all electric energy used on the premises specified in his/her application (except that electric energy which is produced by the member) for membership, and shall pay therefor monthly at rates which shall from time to time be fixed by the Board of Directors. However, the Board of Directors may limit the amount of electric energy (if it is in the best interest of the Cooperative) which the Cooperative shall be required to furnish to any one (1) member. It is expressly understood that amounts paid for electric energy in excess of the cost of service are furnished by members as capital and each member shall be credited with the capital so furnished as provided in these bylaws, as required by regulation or by law. Each member shall pay to the Cooperative such minimum amount per month regardless of the amount of electric energy consumed, as shall be fixed by the Board of Directors from time to time. Each member shall also pay all amounts owed by the member to the Cooperative as and when the same shall become due and payable.

Section 4. No Liability for Debts of the Cooperative. The private property of the members of the Cooperative shall be exempt from the execution for the debts of the Cooperative and no member shall be individually liable or responsible for any debts or liabilities of the Cooperative.

Section 5. Expulsion of Members. The Board of Directors of the Cooperative may, by the affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds (2/3) of the Directors, expel any member of the Cooperative, who shall have violated or refused to comply with any of the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation of the Cooperative or these bylaws or any rules or regulations adopted from time to time by the Board of Directors. Any member so expelled may be reinstated as a member by a vote of the Board of Directors or by a vote of the members of the Cooperative. Such vote shall require a simple majority of the members for reinstatement, but shall require a two-thirds (2/3) majority of the Board of Directors for reinstatement.

Section 6. Loss of Membership. Any member shall lose his, her or its membership in the Cooperative when such member's electrical service has been terminated and is no longer available to the member at any location from the Cooperative.

Section 7. Membership, Transfer and Termination Thereof.

- a. Membership in the Cooperative shall not be transferable, except as hereinafter otherwise provided and, upon the death, cessation of existence, expulsion or withdrawal of a member, the membership of such member shall thereupon terminate except for a joint membership when there is a surviving spouse. Any such termination of membership shall not release the party, his or her heirs, his or her estate or its successors from the debts or liabilities of such member to the Cooperative.
- b. A membership may be issued to an individual, jointly to married persons, to an entity or association. Membership to married persons shall be the only type of joint membership in the Cooperative.
- c. When a membership is held jointly by married persons, upon the death of either person, the membership shall be held solely by the survivor. However, the estate of the decedent shall not be released from any membership debts or liabilities due the Cooperative at the time of death of the member.

ARTICLE II MEETINGS OF MEMBERS

Section 1. Annual Meetings. The annual meeting of the members shall be held on a date set each year by the Board of Directors at any place within Craighead County as the Board of Directors may designate. Such meeting shall be for the purpose of passing upon such matters as the Board of Directors may cause to be designated in the notice of the meeting, and further for the purpose of electing directors, passing upon reports covering the fiscal year and such other business as may come before the meeting. If the election of directors shall not be held on the day designated or an adjournment thereof, the Board of Directors shall cause the election to be held at a special meeting of the members as soon thereafter as is practicable. Failure to hold the annual meeting at the designated time, or failure to have the election at such time, shall not cause a dissolution of the Cooperative, void any election otherwise properly conducted or otherwise affect the Cooperative.

Section 2. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the members (except meetings concerning the removal of a director or officer as set forth herein) may be called by a majority of the Board of Directors or upon a written request signed by at least five hundred (500) of the members of the Cooperative and it shall thereupon be the duty of the Secretary to cause notice of such meeting to be given as hereinafter provided. Such request for a special meeting of the members shall set forth the purpose or purposes of such special meeting. Special meetings of the members may be held at any place within Craighead County in the State of Arkansas specified in the notice of the special meeting.

Section 3. Notice of Members' Meetings. Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of a special meeting, the purpose for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten (10) days nor more than thirty (30) days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the Secretary, or by the person calling the meeting, to each member. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail, addressed to the member at his/her address as it appears on the records of the Cooperative with postage thereon paid. The failure of any member to receive notice of an annual or special meeting of the members shall not invalidate any action which may be taken by the members at any such meeting.

Section 4. Quorum. A quorum is necessary to transact any business at any meeting of the members of the Cooperative. In order to constitute a quorum, there must be at least five hundred (500) of the members of the Cooperative who are present. As used in this Section 4, the term, "present" means any member who is present in person, by written vote properly returned, if applicable, or by proper mail return of an acknowledgment of the meeting (when no vote is being taken). If less than a quorum is present at any meeting of the members, a majority of those members present in person may adjourn the meeting without further notice.

Section 5A. Voting. Each member shall be entitled to one (1) vote and no more upon each matter submitted to a vote. All questions presented shall be decided by a vote of a majority of the members properly voting thereon except as otherwise provided by law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws. If a husband and wife hold a joint membership, they shall jointly be entitled to one (1) vote and no more upon each matter submitted to a vote of the members. At all members' meetings, a member may vote in person or by mail ballot, and voting by proxy shall not be permitted.

Section 5B. Mail Voting. All matters which are to be submitted to members for vote shall be voted on by written ballot sent to each of the members by mail except for approval of unapproved minutes of previous meetings which shall be voted on by the members in actual attendance at the meeting. The Secretary shall be responsible for sending to each member a notice of the meeting and a ballot for all issues to be resolved by mail voting including the election of directors. Such notice shall include a full and complete copy of all such motions or resolutions to be voted upon by mail as well as the ballots for the election of directors. Each member shall express his/her vote thereon by placing a mark in the space provided therefor opposite his/her approval or disapproval of each such motion or resolution and for the candidate(s) chosen as his/her selection(s). The member shall enclose each ballot marked in a sealed envelope bearing his/her name and addressed to the Secretary of the Cooperative. Such written vote must be returned to the secretary in its envelope by mail or by personal delivery to the Cooperative to be counted. Ballots received which are not in a properly marked envelope shall not be counted. All ballots properly marked and received by the time specified in the notice of meeting shall be counted as the vote of such member upon the issues. In the case a joint membership, only one (1) vote may be cast by such joint membership. The failure of any member to receive a copy of any ballot shall not invalidate any action which may be taken by the members at the meeting.

Section 6. Order of Business. The order of business at the annual meeting of the members, and so far as possible at all other meetings of the members, shall be as follows:

- a. Call of the roll.

In order to remain eligible to serve as a director or to be re-elected (while such director is an incumbent), the director must continue to reside in the County or Counties which is/are a part of the district and position from which the director was elected and receive electrical service from the Cooperative in the area encompassed by that same district and position.

For purposes of these bylaws, the term, "first elected" shall mean the election of a director in accordance with the bylaws when that director is not an incumbent at the time of his/her election regardless of previous service on the Board of the Cooperative. Unless a vacancy occurs, the terms of directors shall be staggered so that not more than one (1) director from each district shall have a term of office expiring in the same year. In the event districts are combined, the director whose district is being eliminated, will continue to serve until such time as his/her term expires.

Section 2B. Qualifications and Tenure. All directors shall serve terms of six (6) years in length unless they are filling a vacancy of an unexpired term. All directors elected to fill a vacancy of an unexpired term shall be elected for the period remaining on the unexpired term.

When a membership is held jointly by a husband and wife, either one, but not both, may be elected a director. Nothing contained in this section shall or shall be construed to affect in any manner whatsoever the validity of an action taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors.

Section 3. Nominations. Nominations for the Board of Directors shall be by petition only. Any petition for nomination must be obtained at the Cooperative by the person who is to be nominated. Such petition shall be for a particular district and position. The person seeking such nomination may obtain more than one (1) copy of such petition and shall provide the Cooperative with a phone number upon which voicemails may be left. To be placed on the ballot, the petitioner must obtain the signature of no less than fifteen (15) current members of the Cooperative on the petition(s). Note: Only one (1) person may sign on the nominating petition for each membership, i.e., a husband and wife having a joint membership shall be counted as only one (1) signature on a petition.

Petitions for nomination shall first be available at the Cooperative one hundred fifty (150) days prior to the annual meeting. The person desiring to be nominated as a member of the Board of Directors must present the petition(s) with original signatures thereon not less than ninety (90) days prior to the annual meeting. Only petitions that have been provided by the Cooperative will be accepted. If such petition(s) are in proper form and contain a minimum of fifteen (15) proper signatures, and the person so nominated meets the requirements as outlined in this Article III, such person shall be added to the list of nominees for the proper position. If, for any reason, the Cooperative and its attorney determine that the petition is not in proper form or does not contain a minimum of fifteen (15) proper signatures, the Cooperative shall provide both verbal and written notice to the member being nominated no later than three (3) days after such petition(s) are returned to the Cooperative. Upon receipt of such notice, the member desiring to be nominated may correct such petition(s) and return properly completed petition(s) to the Cooperative no later than ninety (90) days prior to the annual meeting. If the petition(s) is/are returned to the Cooperative and the member desiring to be nominated does not return the petition(s) to the Cooperative within such time as to allow the Cooperative to verify that the petition(s) is/are proper and to provide notice to such member, then the member shall not be nominated for such position and shall not be placed on any ballot to be sent by the Cooperative.

The Secretary will post and maintain at the Cooperative, a current list of all proper nominees for all of the Board of Directors' positions to be elected at the next annual meeting. Following the close of nominations, the Secretary will mail with a notice of the annual meeting a statement setting forth the position to which directors are to be elected at such meeting and the name of all proper nominees for each such position. The Secretary will be responsible for assuring that the notice of the meeting is published in the Arkansas Living magazine. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, failure to comply with the provisions of this Section will not affect in any manner whatsoever the validity of any election of a director or directors.

The election of Directors will be by ballot in writing delivered by mail or personal delivery to the office of the Cooperative and only those persons nominated by petition will be on such ballots. No nominations will be accepted from the floor. The Cooperative shall mail each member a ballot in sufficient time for it to be marked and returned by the time set for the annual meeting.

Section 4. Removal of Directors and Officers except for Failure to Meet

Qualifications. Any member may bring charges against an officer or director by filing them in writing with the Secretary, together with a petition signed by twenty percent (20%) of the members, requesting the removal of the officer or director in question. Such petition for removal shall be against only one (1) officer or director, i.e. a separate petition containing the requisite number of signatures must be provided for each officer or director that is proposed to be removed. The charges which are brought against such officer or director shall be set forth in writing and shall provide sufficient detail to allow the officer or director to know and understand the nature of the charges made against him or her. Further, any meeting to consider evidence for removal shall be for one (1) officer or director only at a time, i.e. each officer or director that is proposed to be removed shall be entitled to a separate meeting during which evidence concerning that officer or director only shall be considered.

The officer or director against whom such charges have been brought shall be informed in writing [a minimum of sixty (60) days prior to any such meeting] of the charges and shall have an opportunity to be heard in person and by counsel and to present such evidence at such meeting as is relevant and necessary to make a proper determination regarding the charges against the officer or director. Further, the person or persons bringing such charges against the officer or director shall have the same opportunity to present such evidence. The date for the hearing of such charges shall be fixed by the Board of Directors and written notice of such hearing shall be sent to all members of Cooperative at their mailing address no less than forty five (45) days prior to the date of the hearing. Any officer or director shall be removed for cause only. For purposes of removal of such officer or director, the term, "for cause" shall be defined as an act or omission adversely affecting the Cooperative which amounts to gross negligence, fraud, criminal conduct or other action(s) which materially affect the Cooperative.

Evidence shall be heard at the special meeting for removal of the director. In order to conduct such meeting, there shall be a minimum of one thousand (1,000) members present in person throughout such meeting. During such meeting at which the evidence is presented, the members of the Cooperative who are present throughout shall vote on whether the officer or director shall be removed at the end of the presentation of the evidence. Such voting shall be accomplished by written ballot. An officer or director shall only be removed by an affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds (2/3rds) of the members voting upon such issue. In the event that the officer or director is removed based upon this vote, the remaining members of the Board of Directors shall vote upon and elect a new member of the Board of Directors at the first regular board meeting following the removal of such officer or director.

Section 5. Vacancies. Vacancies occurring in the Board of Directors for any reason, including but not limited to removal of a director, shall be filled by a majority vote of the remaining directors and each director thus elected shall serve for the remainder of the unexpired term of the member being replaced.

Section 6. Compensation. Directors shall not receive any salary for their services but by policy of the Board of Directors a per diem as well as all reasonable attendance related expenses shall be allowed for attendance during which a Board Member participates related to his membership on the Board of Directors or any committee or other office or membership based upon their Board of Directors' activities.
